@PHLschools   @philly_schools

Continuity of Education Plan

Accountability Monitoring

Access & Participation Reporting

Number of learning guides distributed as of June 4	309,700 paper-based 250 digital
Number of students receiving Chromebooks as of June 8th	85,265
% of students participating in remote/digital learning week of June 1 in simple schedule (K-8 schools)	63%
% of students participating in remote/digital learning week of June 1 in master schedule school (6-8 and 9-12 schools)	57%
Total % of students participating in remote/digital learning week of June 1	61%

Summer Programming

— Intended Outcomes
  — Prevent learning loss and ensure continued academic enrichment
  — Promote successful transition to and from high school
  — Support Newcomer English Learners and Special Education Students

— Program Highlights
  SOAR: Summer Opportunity for Academic Review - Register by 6/12
  — Eligible students in grades 3 - 7 to reinforce skills necessary for the next grade

  UPENN Rising Senior Summer Academy - Register by 6/12
  — Immerse rising seniors in academic, career, and postsecondary preparation
  — Participants will earn 1 elective credit

— Registration and eligibility information on District website

SY20-21 Reopening

- Ensure the return to school is safe; includes families and staff in the process; and prioritizes student achievement, high-quality instruction, and the health and well-being of all.

  - Health and safety
  - Uninterrupted high-quality instruction
  - Equity
  - Data-driven decision-making
  - Flexibility

Early June	Stakeholder Surveys
Early June	PDE and City Guidance
Mid-June	Reopening Framework
Early July	Health and Safety Plan
Mid-July	Reopening Plan
Early October	Stakeholder Surveys